Entry Discussing Selected Matters

I.

The petitioner shall have through February 28, 2013, in which to either pay the $5.00 filing fee for this action or demonstrate his financial inability to do so.

II.

The deferential review commanded by the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act ("AEDPA"), codified in part at 28 U.S.C. § 2254, applies to claims which the Indiana courts adjudicated on their merits. Pursuant to the AEDPA, "a federal court may issue a writ of habeas corpus only if the state court reached a decision that was either contrary to, or an unreasonable application of, clearly established federal law as determined by the Supreme Court." Raygoza v. Hulick, 474 F.3d 958, 963 (7th Cir. 2007) (citing 28 U.S.C. § 2254(d)(1)).

Based on the foregoing, and based also on the fact that notice pleading does not suffice in an action for habeas corpus relief, see Lloyd v. Van Natta, 296 F.3d 630, 633 (7th Cir. 2002), the petitioner shall have through February 28, 2013, in which to supplement his petition for a writ of habeas corpus by supplying the following information:

1. As to each of the claims asserted in the petition, was it decided on the merits by the Indiana courts?

2. As to each of the claims decided on the merits by the Indiana courts, in what sense, if any, did the state court's adjudication (i) result in a decision that was contrary to clearly established Federal Law, as determined by the Supreme Court of the United States or (ii) result in a decision which was an unreasonable application of clearly established Federal Law, as determined by the Supreme Court of the United States?

IT IS SO ORDERED.
